HOMEOWNERS ASSOCIATION

INSURANCE SUMMARY

The Coronado Cays HOA Declaration of Covenants, Conditions & Restrictions (CC&Rs) have numerous sections that deal with both the association's risk management and insurance responsibilities and with those of a unit owner. At times, these responsibilities also extend to tenants of owners and others who may be guests or visitors. As an owner, you need to become familiar with the CC&Rs, in general, and with the risk management and insurance parts applicable to you, in particular. Also, you should ask your own personal insurance advisor to review these sections of the CC&Rs with you so that you can obtain proper types of personal insurance with appropriate limits given your exposures to loss. Here are certain unit owner risk management and insurance issues that you should consider: (1) Identifying and properly insuring the elements of your home in coordination with the Coronado Cay HOA's master policy. (2) Protecting yourself (and your neighbors) from possible damage resulting from the marina, boats and docks, (3) Securing personal earthquake and flood insurance for possible damage to your unit and possible special assessments levied by the association for such damage. The association does not maintain flood insurance. With respect to earthquake issues, you should ask your personal insurance advisor to explain coverages available from the California Earthquake Authority. The three issues just cited, however, are not meant to be a complete list by any means. Please read your CC&Rs and talk to your personal insurance advisor.

Statutory Disclosure

This summary of the Association's policies of insurance provides only certain information, as required by the Civil Code, and should not be considered a substitute for the complete policy terms and conditions contained in the actual policies of insurance. Any Association member may, upon request and provision of reasonable notice, review the Association's insurance policies and, upon request and payment of reasonable duplication charges, obtain copies of those policies. Although the Association maintains the policies of insurance specified in this summary, the Association's policies of insurance may not cover your property, including personal property or real property improvements to or around your dwelling, or personal injuries or other losses that occur within or around your dwelling. Even if a loss is covered, you may nevertheless be responsible for paying all or a portion of any deductible that applies. Association members should consult with their individual insurance broker or agent for appropriate additional coverage.
